Saturday 29th April 2017
Co. Wexford Showground's Enniscorthy

Dear Principal,

The National Committee would like to take this opportunity to invite your school's equestrian competitor(s) to take part in the 24th All Ireland Inter Schools Open Show Jumping Championship at the County Wexford Showground's, Enniscorthy, Co.Wexford.

We ask that this Entry Form and all accompanying details are passed on to the person handling equestrian activities. Please post the attached posters in a prominent area so that all children may avail of the opportunity to compete for their school.

Enclosed is a Poster explaining details of Competition, could you please display in a prominent location. Please note that students who jump in the team competition can also compete in either the Open or Novice Individual as their age permits. Also, if you can't field a team, students can compete in the Individual competitions only.

To aid us in processing your entries, please ensure that all the necessary information is supplied and correct. School Principals are asked to sign and stamp all entries and waiver forms and return the completed documentation before:

Because the Easter Holidays fall so close to the competition this year, please send your entries to us BEFORE you close for the holidays.

Entries will be taken by email on the 24th and 25th April (this year only) to facilitate any late entries. allirelandissj@gmail.com
