Report:

A lovely mild Sunday morning greeted teams at the TRI Equestrian Interschools showjumping competition held in Killossery Equestrian Center on Sunday 14th of January. The Novice Team Competition started the day with the showjumping track built by Ciaran Glynn proving challenging with only one team finishing on a nil score. Mount Sackville Secondary School took the winning spot with riders Amy and Isabelle Ward and Jill and Robyn McKenna keeping all the poles up with the Newbridge College team of Aoife Harrington, Aoife Keane, Laura Kavanagh and Hannah Lawler taking 2nd place with 4 faults. Aoife Keane of Newbridge College went on to take Novice Individuals with Laura Kidd of St David's Greystones taking 2nd place. The Open team's competition proved very exciting with 3 teams in the jump off. Two teams ended on a nil score with the East Glendalough team winning by a 12 second lead. The three rider team of Robert Cherry, Lauren Codd and Jazmine Arthur were delighted with their win. 2nd place went to the St Gerard's Bray team of Georgiana Wilkinson, Eilis Breathnach, Emma Ward and Milly O'Loughlin. 3rd place went to the Borris Vocational School of Catherine and Claire Kavanagh, Patrick Doyle and Aoife Murphy.

The Open Individuals were dominated by East Glendalough with Robert Cherry taking 1st on his pony Rocket with team mate Jazmine Arthur and her pony Cara Cave Boy taking 2nd.

The Next leg of the TRI Equestrian Interschools league takes place on Sunday the 21st of January in Wexford Equestrian Centre.
